Dear Parent(s),

I am so excited for our young girls who are on the verge of womanhood and what we, as parents and a community, can do to help them become young women of excellence.

To give you a bit of background on the inception of this 7 week study entitled "Today's Modern Day Princess." Here is a brief summary from the author, Doreen Hanna...

"After researching the subject of a "Rite-of-Passage" I realized that almost all cultures have a way of bringing their young men and women into adulthood. But what do we, in our modern culture, have for our young people today?

Through research and the assistance of my youngest daughter, this study for teen girls was created. The program provides the opportunity for girls to discover their personal potential, see the results of present and future choices, equip them to achieve their dreams, and challenges them to choose to live with high values, compassion, and character.

The first class was implemented several years ago in New Mexico. Upon completion, these young ladies invited their family and friends to a "Night of Celebration." That evening, the girls were presented to their community as young women of purpose, value, and strength. Their father (or other respected man in their life) came forward and publicly acknowledged their value and accomplishments. The community was then challenged to love, encourage, and support them.

This study deepened the convictions of each girl and strengthened the commitment of their community to their future generation of leaders. Since its inception, awareness has risen for the need of a "Rite-of-Passage" for the teens in our local community, as well as in various other cities throughout the nation.

It is my sincere hope that each young woman will walk in the "royalty" that she possess as a young woman of high standards and compassion, and with confidence boldly proclaim that she is "A Modern Day Princess."

Would you be interested in supporting and encouraging your daughter in this fun and exciting study entitled "Today's Modern Day Princess"? If so, please plan to attend the following Daughter/Parent meeting:
