- III. Parents role and responsibilities thru out these next 10 weeks/ overview of each week:

Week 1

Please take a moment to write about one personality or character trait you love about her on the enclosed note card. Please sign the card and return it to her within the next two days in the envelope provided. Make sure the envelope is sealed. Next week she will return to class with this note card and others she has obtained. At that time, she will open all her sealed envelopes and share what others love about her. Thank you for your cooperation in helping this young lady to see a godly characteristic that He has placed within her.

Week 2

Your Daughters will be coming home with a Document: "The Legacy "

There will be 3 copies sent home:

1. Mom
2. Dad
3. Daughter

The purpose of this document is to get the girls to gain a better understanding of where (You) their parents have come from. One of the Godliest things you can ever do for your teenager is to help them understand what you have been through. When someone understands someone else then they have A LOT more grace for them. Teens have a tendency at times to be very self-focused and by talking to (You) their parents about the homes (you) their parents grew up in it take the focus off of the teens and puts it on the (you) parents. This gives the teen a perspective of their parents that they may have never known or considered before. I am not one who puts a lot of emphasizes on historical family heritage as much as spiritual, emotional, and social legacy. So if you would please take the time to fill out this survey, I would greatly appreciate it.

We do not read this over in class it is strictly for them to begin to learn why they are the way they are and why their parents react they way they do.

Week 3

Daughters will come home with a list of question to take with them on a Date with their mothers. You can also go over the document sent home last week and talk about the answers to its questions.

Week 4

Daughters will go out with their fathers and ask their father's questions. You may also choose go over the document sent home on week 2 and talk about the answers to its questions.

Also on week 4 the girls will be given a "Passion For Purity" folder that has 2 things in it that it is up to the girls if they want to give you father's. Deep down every young lady wants to know that their father will be their protector.

Dr. David Jeremiah said: "For any woman one very dominating influence is her father, he is the first man to whom she gives her heart, and how he reacts strongly effects her future with men."

1. Ladies your life depends on allowing your fathers, stepfathers and respected man to declare blessings, into your life, in all our hearts, we have 2 vacuum's one for God and one for our earthly father. If we do not allow them or another respected man to fill that vacuum we will look to get it filled in boys.
2. There are 2 kinds of men in the world: Protectors and Predators. You will need to allow your father's to help you discern between the two which means you must allow them to take their roll of protector of your purity. The first step is asking them to take that roll. Your second step is providing them with the tools to do that, by giving them the "Teamwork = Success" letter and the questions to ask Potential Spouses. 3rd. step is by allowing your Father to bless you.

This is a vivid reminder of the incredible impact a father has on his daughter's life. Modeling a life of integrity and protecting our daughter's purity. The relationship between father's and daughter's sets the stage for all future romantic activities and feelings. Your girls are really looking to you Father's to gain your approval and see how you value things.

Week 5

Important Dates To Remember:

Celebration Ceremony: March 25.

Doka Dad's Meetings: Feb. 4 Just before you go out with her on the date. March 4, March 18.

It would be good if you could write these dates down now, but I will send you an email every Thursday recapping the girls homework as well as what we covered in class.
